The Happy Home.

I love the hearth where evening brings Her loved ones from their daily tasks, Where Virtue spreads her spotless wings, And Vice, fell serpent ! never basks; Where sweetly rings upon the ear The blooming daughter's gentle song. Like heavenly music whispered near,

While thrilling hearts the notes prolong. For there the father sits in joy, And there the cheerful mother smiles, And there the laughter-loving boy, With sportive tricks, the eve beguiles; And love, beyond what worldlings know, Like sunlight on the purest foam,

Lights up the Christian's happy home. Contentment spreads a holy calm Around a resting place so bright, And gloomy sorrow finds a balm In gazing at so fair a sight; The world's cold selfishness departs, And Discord rears its front no more, There Pity's pearly tear-drop starts,

Descends, and with its cheering glow,

And Charity attends the door. No biting scandal, fresh from hell, Grates on the ear, or scalds the tongue; There kind remembrance loves to dwell, And virtue's meed is sweetly sung; And human nature soars on high, Where heavenly spirits love to roam, And Vice, as stalks it rudely by,

Admires the Christian's happy home. Oft have I joined the lovely ones Around the bright and cheerful hearth, With father, mother, daughters, sons,

The brightest jewels of the earth; And while the world grew dark around, And Pashion called her senseless throng, I've fancied it was holy ground, And that fair girl's a scraph's song. And swift as circles fade away,

Upon the bosom of the deep, When pebbles tossed by boys at play, Disturb its still and glassy sleep, The hours have sped in pure delight, And wandering feet forget to roam, While waved the banners of the night,

Mr. Richard H. Dana, Jr., writes from Honolulu to the N. Y. Tribune :

I had a letter of introduction to the Roman Cath olic Bishop of Honolulu, and visited several of the churches and schools under their jurisdiction, which extends over all the Islands of the groop So far as I observed, the missions are successful the churches are well filled, and the priests bear good reputations for fidelity and self-denial, and several whom I met I found to be men of thorough education. They gained especially in public esteem by their conduct during the terrible visitation of the small-pox a few years ago,

The inefficiency of the Puritan or Independent service to awaken devotional feelings in the breast of the natives is thus pointed out by the observant writer:

The minds of natives of this zone of the globe peculiarly require something to retain their attention and interest. The missionaries have recognized this law in their schools and find it expedient to fix the attention of scholars in recitations by classes by responsative and general reading and answers, by the use of figures on black boards, by maps and pictures. The only system of worship and discipline which the missionaries have introduced has been that which is known at home as the Puritan or independent; and in this they have had the field to themselves. The houses of worship are plain, naked buildings, with pews and benches, a large desk in which the preacher sometimes dressed in the tweed sack coat of the shop and market (or, as I once saw with the spurs on his boots.) stands to read preach and pray. The congregation sit through the whole service, not only never kneeling or standing in prayer, but not even bending the head forwards in token of reverence. The music is solely the singing of one or two rhyming hymns, performed by a small choir. The congregation have no part in the service. They are simply listeners from begining to end. Young or old, learned or unlearned, they are expected to be attentive listeners for some two hours, without a word to say, a thing to do, a sound to utter for themselves. My observation, after attending several places of worship in the principal islands, is that the natives, except there be some stirring passage in the sermon, are languid and easily distracted listners and irreverent actors. In their family 16m 41 PARK ROW, NEW YORK. worship they kneel, and are more reverent, being left more to their instincts. At public worship they come in at all times, sit, look about, easily fall asleep, and when the last prayer ends start for the door, a good deal as a theater breaks up, hardly ever waiting for the benediction. The greater hold which the imposing ceremonies noticed by Mr. Dana: It is not difficult to see the Roman Catholic Church, with its opened doors, free sittings, daily mass and vespers, its corps of teaching and visiting nuns, its sacramental system, its worship addressd to the mind and heart through the eye and ear, as well as by the word to the understanding; with its service, which gives a part to all, and especially its system of commemorations, and, in the modern sense, its "spiritualism" of angels most vacant native faculties.

As an instance, too, of the power of accommodation possessed by the Roman Catholics, it is not too small a matter to notice that while in the open assemblies of the American missionaries the na- in San Francisco, to tives sit on benches, in constrained attitdes, and come dressed in imitations of the European fashion, the men in black hats, boots, tight coats and trowsers, and the woman in out-of fashion bonnets and unacustomed shoes, in the Roman Catholic places of worship they kneel on mats and chairs, wear the looser and easier dress of every day, the women with bear heads and never-failing garland of flowers berries, and young men come to the porch in straw hats decked with flowers and green leaves.

The subject has attracted attention in the islands. I found that many who agreed with me in a high estimate of the good the missionaries have done, yet felt the defects of the public worship, and one of the missionaries told me he had long thought that changes must be made in their system in the direction of the ritual and liturgy of the English Church .- Monitor .

ADVANTAGES OF POVERTY AND ADVERSITY .- YOU wear out old clothes. You are not troubled with many visitors. You are excused from making calls. Bores do not bore you. Spongers cannot haunt your table. Itinerant bands do not play opposite your window. You avoid the nuisance of serving on juries. No one thinks of presenting you with a testimonial. No tradesman irritates you by asking, "Is there any other little thing to day, sir? Begging letter writers leave you alone. Impostors know it is useless to bleed you. You practice temperance. You swallow infinitely less poison than others. You have saved many a deception-many a headache. And lastly if you have a true friend in the world, you are sure, in a very short space of time, to discover the agreeable fact.

A discussion arose in a hotel parlor as to the citizenship of a gentleman at the other end of the room. "He's an Englishman," said one, "I know by his head." "He's a Scotchman," said another,
"Iknow by his complection." "He's a German,"
said another, "I know by his beard." The ladies thought he looked like a Spaniard. Here the conversation rested, but soon one of them spoke : "I have it," said be, "he's an American; he's got his legs on the table."

Prof. Anderson, in 1855, Pronounced it to be the Saver of his Hair ROYAL LYCEUM THEATER, STRAND, LONDON,)

It affords me very great pleasure to bear witness to the sur-prising efficacy of "Bogle's Hyperion Pluid." I had occasion to resort to it after losing so much of my hair as to be almost hald, owing to the influence of the climate, during my tour in the United States. Various much vaunted Hair Restoratives which I had already tried having entirely failed, I was advised to test the value of Mr. Bogle's preparation. I used it diligently for some time, when to my great gratification my hair assumed more than its former luxuriance. Hence I can—both from my own experience and that of my friends to whom I have recommended its use—most confidently advise the use of the "Hyperion Fluid" to all who need the use of that which chall restore poursel, and heavily their, For these purshall restore, nourish, and beautify their hair. For these pur-poses, I am certain that it is unsurpassed and unsurpassable. JOHN HENRY ANDERSON,

To the Public of Honolulu.

The Agent of Bogle's Hyperion Fluid having called on me when I arrived here, I was delighted to find myold friend had preceded me (I mean Begle's Fluid.) My hair was falling off in thousands per day; a short interview with my friend has stoped the fall; a few smart rubbing operations, performed by "VOELKER," has made every hair as tast as the Hawaiian on my Magic Chair, 1, in 1859, in Honolulu, recommend i to the world as the Great Hair Preserver.

BEST HAIR DYE In the World!

THIS IS RATHER STRONG language, yet Bogle's Electric Hair Dye (recently improved) was proven to be so by the judges at the late Mechanics' Fair, held in Boston (among whom was Dr. Hayes, the eminent chemist and State Assayer), who awarded it the Prize Medal and Diploma, over the choicest hair dyes on exhibition from all parts of the Union. Its unparalleled superiority consists in, lst, The ingredients are nourishing to the hair, not destructive, as others are. 2d, Does not hurt or stain the skin. 3d, Is easily applied, and dyes the hair any color required from a delicate brown to a deep black, so natural as to appear marvellous. Manufactured, sold and applied by WM. BUGLE, 502 Washington street, Boston, and may be had of Druggists everywhere.

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we never have been able to say of any other medicine, NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A BINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FUL-FILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This valuable proparation is the prescription of one of the most EX-PERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been med with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and howels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, and in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST RE-MEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIAR-RHOEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child enflering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PRE-JUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely need. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
